Jane stated that the Peace Plus Programme (2021 to 2027) opened for public consultation from 10th March until 12th May 2021. Jane explained that views are being sought on the draft content of the PEACE PLUS Programme (2021-2027) which is worth approximately €1bn. It has been designed following a comprehensive cross border stakeholder engagement process, early last year that included 16 different consultation events, with over 1,000 people in attendance. Over 300 survey responses were submitted.

PEACE PLUS is a new funding programme designed to support peace and prosperity across Northern Ireland and the border counties of Ireland, building upon the work of the previous PEACE and INTERREG Programmes. The design reflects the importance of peace-building activity, but also the importance of actions that will contribute positively to the economy, building prosperity and adjusting to the new environment and challenges faced.

Jane explained that the purpose of this public consultation is to provide citizens, and other key stakeholders, with an opportunity to share their views on the content and administrative arrangements of the PEACE PLUS Programme.

Jane asked members to forward any comments members wished to make to her by Friday 7th May, as Jane was compiled a response on behalf of Cavan County Council.

Cllr. Clifford Kelly congratulated Jane on all the work she had done on previous PEACE programmes and wished her well with this new programme.

The Chair asked what percentage of the funding will be going north and how much will be going south of the border. In response, the Chief Officer said there is no breakdown yet, but this consultation was an important opportunity for us to influence the programme and we need to focus on the areas that we feel are important and try to ensure that these areas were well represented and funded in the programme.

The Chair pointed out that in light of Brexit, this will be the last PEACE Programme and it was very important that we responded to the consultation.
