DETAILS AND PARTICULARS

Branch Librarians make a valuable contribution to the provision of Cavan County Council's Library services. The Branch Librarian will work as part of a multidisciplinary team, to meet the wide-ranging information, education, research and cultural needs of the people of Cavan County Council. As part of Cavan County Council's commitment to providing quality Library services to citizens, the Branch Librarian will assist in delivering a range of services across its network of branch libraries. Branch Librarians provide a point of contact for customers to carry out their business and access information about the Council's Library services. He / she will also be required to operate the Council's existing and future IT systems as part of their work. Staff are required to work a shift pattern over six days.

Duties

The duties of the Branch Librarian will be such clerical / administrative library duties as may be assigned from time to time by Cavan County Council Libraries. They will include deputising, when required, for other employees of the Council and such duties as may be assigned in relation to the area of any other Local Authority.

The key duties and responsibilities of the post of the Branch Librarian include:

- Frontline staff dealing with the public / customer care (for example responding to queries and providing information);
- Shelving and tidying of library material;
- Issue and discharge of library material;
- Process reservations for material;
- Deal with queries from the public on the collections or various services of Cavan County Council Libraries;
- Help library users retrieve information and access library and other services;
- Book processing – covering, labelling, mending and shelving of library material;
- Assist in the organisation and delivery of events: book clubs; hobby clubs; parent and toddler groups; storytelling and so on;
- General clerical and administrative duties relevant to the Library Service, for example cash management, attendance returns, Health and Safety checklist, branch statistics, filing, photocopying, scanning, telephone, post;
- Operating existing and future IT systems - word processing, spreadsheets, database, library systems, e-mail and internet;
- Assisting the public in using the self-service facilities and other IT equipment;
- Any other duties that may be assigned from time to time.

The particular duties and responsibilities attached to the post may vary from time to time, without changing the general character of the duties or level of responsibilities entailed.

The post holder may therefore be required to perform duties appropriate to the post, other than those detailed above, and to take instructions from and report to, an appropriate Officer or such designated Officer as may be assigned from time to time by the Council.

Notwithstanding the requirements of the post successful applicants may be assigned to any service area/role within the Local Authority at an analogous level by the Chief Executive at any time.

Candidates will be expected to be flexible in terms of working hours as the duties can involve working outside of normal office hours.
